

Ardea Tester

The Ardea Tester is the software you can use for archiving your test data and producing the test certificates.

The Tester is mainly tailored for API pumps tests. With it you can produce the certificate for pump performance, the NPSH graph, the vibrations spectra, the noise octave band certificates and the measurement instruments.

It can be interfaced with a data acquisition system for importing the raw data coming from transducers.